

Jedidiah McKeehan

Attorney, Mediator, Speaker, Podcaster, Entrepreneur

Born and raised in Knoxville, Jed has attended Berean Christian School, Fulton High School and Carson-Newman. Jed has spoken to many groups around Knoxville including local Sertoma and Kiwanis Clubs, the Community Law School and at Continuing Education seminars.

Jed maintains a radio show/podcast with Fulton High School students titled, "In Session with Jed McKeehan." He also shares his legal knowledge through an array of Youtube videos that cover a range of legal topics.

Speaking topics:

The Criminal Process from Arrest to Trial

The criminal process can actually be very lengthy from start to finish. This insightful presentation walks the audience through the step-by-step process.

Wills and Powers of Attorney: What You Need to Know to Protect Yourself

With an aging population and an unprecedented amount of wealth expected to be transferred to the next generation, it is important to understand how to protect yourself, your estate, and your wishes.

Divorce – The Necessary Considerations

No one likes the idea of divorce, but there are many things you need to have in place to protect yourself and your family in case of a divorce.

Personal Injury – Wreck? Check?

Personal injury lawsuits are stacked against the little guy. Learn how you can save yourself a lot of hassle and protect yourself if a lawsuit is your only option.

Landlord - Tenant Issues

I answer some common landlord-tenant questions that I get asked on a regular basis, and then open it up for audience discussion.

Praise for Jed:

"A few minutes into Jed's public education program, I could tell the audience was hooked. He used humor and real life examples to educate local residents about how to protect themselves against fraud, make sure their wishes are observed at important moments, and provide them with peace of mind regarding financial decisions."
